He found her...! Ellie, the "ponytailed psychologist," has her own TV show where she gives counseling advice. When she returns to the locker room, Nikolai is waiting for her! He's a Russian millionaire who has been chasing her persistently since the accident from five years ago. Because of him Ellie had to change her name and escape from her hometown. If only she could remember what happened during the accident, maybe she could prove her innocence... But as Nikolai draws near and stares at her with cold blue eyes, he says this: "In atonement for killing my brother...you shall marry me!"
