Immersed in a fierce Civil War battle, Damon Salvatore witnesses the recapture of an escaped slave. Overhearing Colonel Nathan Vance planning to torture the frightened runaway, Damon wonders if the villainous Confederate officer is involved in something more sinister than mortal warfare. Damon resolves to escape with the poor, doomed captive, only to find the slave cast off, dead and mysteriously drained of blood. Terrified, the young recruit himself flees the battlefield and war, vowing that if he and Nathan Vance should ever cross paths again, he will have to kill him. Thirty-six years later, Damon unexpectedly gets his chance for revenge when he encounters the imperturbable, blood-thirsty killer on a Mississippi steam boat. Following Vance to a lavish brothel, he overhears the vampire conspiring with a voluptuous witch to resurrect an ancient, unholy evil from beneath the Mississippi delta. His heart pounding, Damon knows he must act swiftly if he hopes to stave off a dark underworld resurrection. Meticulously plotted and powerfully written, The Dweller in the River brings alive a terrifying world of Russian Werewolves, witches and vampire hunters.
