In the game of Life, the use of time is very crucial. An understanding of the value of time and importance of time will determine how far success is achieved. There are those who have little regard for time, and that is reflected in their character and mentality. The consequence of such attitude to time is reflected in our concept of African Time and that is probably why Africa is where is at this time.

The book "Time - The Currency of Life" was divinely inspired to x-ray the importance of time in the life of human beings.

The book is divided into nine chapters, each addressing the value of time and the need to be conscious about the use of time.

More than ever before people treat time with disdain and disrespect, oblivious of the fact that it is a universal currency God has given to everyone equally for which we will all give account of someday.

The book tries to help one recover and recapture the value and attention you need to give "Time"

It concluded with time tested wise sayings and quotable quotes to remind everyone of the value of time.
