Organization, Class and Control (RLE: Organizations) (Routledge Library Editions: Organizations)
Stewart Clegg, David Dunkerley

In this volume the authors develop a systematic and chronologically based critique of the major concepts, figures and schools in organization. Themes discussed include:

- the development of scientific management and the responses of Gramsci and Lenin to it
- the meaning of Mayo and the Human Relations School
- the development of typological systems and contingency models of the organization
- key concepts of goals, environment and technology.
