The Diamond Bubble (The Captain José Da Silva Mysteries) Robert L. Fish
A peculiar diamond sale pits Captain José Da Silva against his cousin

It is an ancient scam: Offer a wealthy American a massive diamond for a bargain price, have a jeweler confirm the stone is genuine, and swap it for a fake as soon as the money changes hands. At first, Captain José Da Silva assumes Senator Hastings has been taken in by an ordinary conman, but the diamond is all too real. There is a more elaborate con in progress here, and only one man in Rio would be daring enough to execute it. He is Da Silva's cousin Nestor, and he is a true genius of crime.

According to Nestor's scheme, the senator was supposed to sail that afternoon on the Bolivar, along with three other targets of the plot. But Senator Hastings deviated from the plan and left the boat at the last minute, which means Da Silva still has a chance to set things right—assuming he's quick enough to outwit his own flesh and blood.

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Diamond Bubble (The Captain José Da Silva Mysteries) can make you really feel more interested to read.
