A terrific action-packed military romance by award-winning author Selena Laurence!

She Followed the Rules

When Alexis Garcia left Gabe Thompson in Afghanistan two years ago, she had every intention of waiting for him to come home. Then her domineering parents and the former boyfriend they'd handpicked convinced her Gabe was a mistake, and Alexis returned to the safety of her ex's arms and a predictable future. But when Gabe shows up unexpectedly at her door, all it takes is one searing look and one claiming kiss to reignite the hope and the passion she's concealed for so long.

He Can't Let Her Go

Gabe left the military and has spent the last two years trying to forget the brunette beauty who broke his heart. But after a lifetime of avoiding romantic commitments, he's forced to admit that nothing can erase the memories of the only woman he's ever loved. When he shows up at Alexis's door demanding one more chance, he feels his heart reawaken and his body stir in ways he'd given up on.

Rebuilding Trust Will Be the Biggest Battle They've Ever Faced

Gabe is a soldier and is used to getting what he wants at any cost. The last thing that's going to stop him is an overbearing family and his girl's misplaced sense of loyalty. Now he has to convince Alexis to put everything she knows on the line for their love. Because their connection is undeniable, if only they can stop concealing it from themselves.
