His father's death may have brought Riley Madison home to Clifton but nothing is going to make him stay in a place filled with so many bad memories. He's made a life in Texas and not even a beautiful woman with a little girl who melts his heart is going to make him change his mind. He doesn't do relationships.

Kaitlyn Garrett Parker is happy with her life since her husband's untimely passing. She and her daughter, Sadie, have a home and family in Clifton. Her brother, her friends, and her business are here so when the man she's been fantasizing about since her teens returns to town, seduces her, and steals her heart, is she making a mistake not taking a chance on love?

After learning the real reason for his father's hatred, will the past drive Riley away from what matters most or will the truth open his heart to love and forgiveness?
