Pyrrhus Press specializes in bringing books long out of date back to life, allowing today's readers access to yesterday's treasures.

Leonard Woolsey Bacon's A History of American Christianity traces the history of religion in the country from the European exploration of North America and all the way up into the 19th century. Along the way, Bacon looks at all the different branches of Christianity that were present in the colonies and country, especially Protestants, Catholics, and Quakers, and the important roles religion played in society.
