There's joyous news at Heather Creek: Dana's pregnant! But soon word spreads that a crop disease has put the entire soybean harvest in danger. With the future of the farm hanging in the balance, Pete rallies the local farmers to devise a way to save their harvest. But will his efforts be enough? Meanwhile, Bob and Charlotte have to evaluate their own place on the farm and make one of the toughest decisions of their lives.

And when Kevin moves back to Bedford—this time for good—Charlotte and Bob have to decide how far they are willing to go to protect the children and what it means to let go.

Big changes are coming to Heather Creek. But no matter what the future holds, Charlotte knows that each member of her family is exactly where they belong—in God's hands.
