Gwendolyn Huling-Knight is a young lady who has been through a tough time in life. She was abused by her birth mother severely, placed in the system where she suffered more abuse, and placed in a group home where she faced even more hardships. She was adopted but she had hard times. She became successful and finally got the love she desired and deserved but she had a hard time getting through the pain. She had no other alternative but to turn to God to get help for her pain and hardships. She got married and became abusive for a spell but God saw them through it all. They made it through it God's grace and through God's grace Gwen and her new family were made wealthy and lived happily ever after.
