Teaching Massage equips instructors with the knowledge and skills needed to give each individual student every opportunity to excel in a massage therapy course. Leading massage therapy educators present the gamut of techniques and practices that have proven successful in enabling adult learners to master massage therapy. All aspects of teaching a massage therapy course are thoroughly covered, from motivating and inspiring students to designing and implementing lesson plans to working with special needs students.

An online training program offers continuing education credits and a framework for developing teaching skills. The online course consists of lectures with audio, activities, and quizzes delivered in short, easy-to-complete segments.
