Go Now and Be the Church Brian D. Bennett

This study is a journey into practicing discipleship, inviting individuals and group-fellowships to move their church ministries outward, into their surrounding communities—the natural motion God intended and designed for his body. Ideal for church-wide programs and group studies, or suited for individual discipleship, the short-story format develops through six weekly themes totaling forty daily narrative readings. The mission of this book and ministry is to be a model for the local church and help it experience godly discontent, to listen to God's unique calling, and then to follow as God leads with authentic and relevant love into the lives of neighbors.

Brian Bennett is pastor of Overflow Church in Benton Harbor, Michigan. He completed his Master's degree through Fuller Theological Seminary in 2008 and was ordained by The Wesleyan Church in 2008. Brian is married to his wife Cindy, and they have three children—Hannah, Dawson, and Elle.
