At a time when “false prophets. . . if possible. . . shall deceive the very elect,” many important questions about true prophets are frequently raised. This powerful book addresses each one of these questions and supplies answers that are both precise and definitive. A mine of information on the doctrines and principles involved, the book draws on both the standard works and the inspired words of this dispensation prophets to establish and clarify the divine directive about sustaining and following the Lord's chosen servants today and how to do so. This well-researched, informative book takes a comprehensive approach to a subject that is crucial to every Latter-day Saint.
