A pregnant young woman travels to her Amish husband-to-be, but will he accept her and her secret baby?

When John abandons Rose, alone and pregnant at 25 years of age, she knows her life will never be the same.

Harassed by the locals and feeling more like an orphan than ever, she can't believe her luck when her traveling brother, Andrew, pays her a visit with the news. He is about to join an Amish community in Nebraska, far from their Kentucky home. When he hears of her news, he swears to take her with him, if she is willing to join the Amish, marry a man in the community and live life by God's plan.

It doesn't take much convincing, but when Rose discovers that Andrew didn't tell her prospective husband about her baby, she doesn't know what to do. Should she risk it all and make the move without telling anyone? Or is it better to confess and see what happens?

NOTE: This book includes bonus stories!

AUTHOR'S NOTE: This is an 8,000-word stand-alone story with an HEA, so no cliff-hangers.
