The modification this time is embodied in the following aspects: 1. the relevant contents in the original manuscript have been revised in accordance with laws and regulations including “Law of Succession of the People's Republic of China” and judicial interpretations. 2. The handling of some individual issues related to property inheritance has been supplemented according to information and opinions of market feedbacks. 3. The mistakes existing in the previous edition or where the expressions are inaccurate or indistinct have been revised and polished, and the book is also simplified by cutting out the superfluous. This further improves the quality of contents in manuscripts.
