The Little Red Crab Sue Hellman

What does a little red crab do when he's caught in the waves of the ocean's Northern Shores? The Little Red Crab, by Sue Hellman, introduces us to Scamp the crab and his new friend, the wise old turtle, as they embark on a journey where Scamp learns to face his childhood fears of the wind and crashing waves, and enjoy the fullness of life and the world around him. Author Sue Hellman suffered from anxiety and fear, and she shares a part of herself through the stories she writes to help those struggling with similar issues.
