While lunching in a Sydney café, Sharni can't believe her eyes—a man that's a dead ringer for her deceased husband, Ray, walks through the door. Everything about him, from his face to the way he walks to the way he moves his bangs out of his eyes, screams Ray. Is this man Ray's twin, separated at birth? Determined to get facts, Sharni approaches him. Although he denies her assumptions, the mystery man, Adrian, takes an interest in her and asks her on a date. Can Sharni, who has been alone since the untimely demise of her husband five years ago, open up her heart to this mysterious and dashing stranger?
