Eldorado Kush: "Let's Make America Great Again"

Tis the year 2020. And President Trump sleeps in the White House. Lillian, the boss of a successful recreational marijuana dispensary, and top dog of the town of Boulder in Colorado. Originally from El-Paso in Texas. Lillian moved to Boulder as a child. From there she formed the friendships and relations that lasted through a 'thrash metal' band named "R.I.P Cindy, and transformed into her running her own recreational marijuana dispensary. With the band members under her command. The crew, consisting of Lillian's stoner fiance Odysseus; an Australian bong glazier named Claude, and his Persian accomplice Arrash; with a host of familiar friends that once worked at the dispensary. Consisting of the past members of "R.I.P Cindy" with two fresh faces joining the crew: being Lillian's cousin Nishaad, and his Portuguese girlfriend Celia.

The crew begins their adventure sometime after Lillian published her debut novel "All Along The Wall", and she was appearing on The Bill Maher Show, the same evening that Odysseus disappeared, only to reappear the morning after. With a blimp in the shape of a potent marijuana bud. And with the spirit of adventure, the crew leaves boulder, bound for New Orleans. Where they are to meet with Lillian's godfather.

Eventually, after staying in New Orleans, the crew witnesses the shooting of an unarmed black teenager by a white male police officer. With the horror of what they had seen, the crew decides to venture further south. With a plan to visit all the people they knew in South and Central America.

When they are leaving the house of their billionaire friend Pedro (the inventor of balloons that blow up into the shape of safari animals), in Rio de Janeiro, they leave believing they will be in Lima by the dawn. Instead, there is an emergency landing in eastern Bolivia made by Odysseus, as he realises that he cannot fly the think through the night on minimal sleep. They wake the next morning to a field of safari animals outside the windows.

After having being introduced to the only two people in the vicinity Ricardo Blanco, an obnoxiously prolific Colombian, and his emotionally intelligent eleven year old son: Juan.

The crew quickly realises, after being figuratively enslaved by Ricardo - and forced to manage his private zoo that he intends to open for the public. A charade for the laundering of the Escobar fortune. As with time, and with an escape plan set in motion, the crew come to realise that they are in the company of somebody who should not be underestimated.
