Meurtre à la bibliothèque (Polar) (French Edition) Pierre Roncola

Le bus remontait le boulevard Barbès et se dirigeait vers la porte de Clignancourt. Le jour était encore à peine levé en ce début de matinée. L'hiver tirait à sa fin et le printemps se présentait déjà en vainqueur. Il semblait presque que des pétales de fleurs virevoltaient dans l'air. En ce matin de mars, manteaux et écharpes étaient encore présents sur certains passants engourdis tandis que d'autres les avaient déjà laissés au crochet. Tout indiquait que le renouveau était pour demain. Installé à l'arrière de ce bus, il partait pour son dernier jour de travail. Demain allait être un nouveau jour pour lui. Demain, une nouvelle vie, une vie sans contrainte allait commencer. Demain, il allait faire parti de la classe des retraités.
