A Million Little Ways: Uncover the Art You Were Made to Live Emily P. Freeman

"A Million Little Ways will capture your mind and your imagination with a bold, fresh vision of the life you were created to live."--Mark Batterson, New York Times bestselling author of The Circle Maker

Do you desperately fear you have nothing to offer the world but secretly hope you're wrong?

You were born to make art. You were made to live art. You might not see yourself as an artist, but you are--in so many unexpected ways. In what you create, whether poetry or pie, sculpture or sand castle, calligraphy or conversation. It's time to uncover the shape of your soul, turn down the voice of the inner critic, and move into the world with the courage to be who you most deeply are.

Creating a life of meaning is not about finding that one great thing you were made to do, it's about knowing the one great God you were made to glorify--in a million little ways.

"Emily Freeman's luminous words hand you your rightful birthright. Read them and exhale. These pages just might wow you awake to who you are meant to be."--Ann Voskamp, New York Times bestselling author of One Thousand Gifts

"I read this book during a time where my art, my writing, felt more like wrestling with lions than soaring with creativity. Emily's words ignited something new and fresh and invaluable deep within me."--Lysa TerKeurst, New York Times bestselling author; president of Proverbs 31 Ministries

"Enjoy your last day of wondering if what you do really matters, because this book will forever change the way you see everything you do, from the mundane nightly dishes to your most risky creative endeavor."--Myquillyn Smith, The Nester, author of The Nesting Place

Emily P. Freeman is the author of Grace for the Good Girl and Graceful. Whether in her writing or speaking, Emily's words create space for souls to breathe, offering fresh perspective on the gracefulness of the everyday and the sacredness of our inner lives.
